CHILDREN OF THE CHILD
RESCUE CENTRE

THE TEN-YEAR CIVIL WAR TOOK THEIR HOMES, THEIR FAMILIES, THEIR SECURITY, BUT NOT THEIR HOPE.

In 2000, the Child Rescue Centre (CRC) rescued 140 children from the streets of Bo, Sierra Leone. What started as a street feeding program quickly grew to become a national model for child development programs. Today, nearly 250 children are cared for by the CRC, secure that they will be given opportunities for education and life skills training; that their health care needs will be met; that people love them and will help them succeed. Of the original 40 residential children, 19 are enrolled in post-secondary education, in a nation where only 8% of youths reach that level of education.

This golf tournament provides a significant portion of the CRC's operating expenses each year. Your participation in the tournament ensures the well-being of these children. Together, we are transforming lives and building change in one of the poorest countries in the world.
